19TH YEAR - NO. 40 658-2346 THURSDAY OCTOBER 3, 1974 FIFTEEN CENTS

Tornado hits Forty Acres Saturday is Workday

There was an arson attempt, at Camp Forty Acres, Saturday afternoon, and a tornado on Sunday afternoon.

Somebody tried to set fire to the workhouse, at Camp Forty Acres, about 5 pm Saturday. The Fire Marshall has been called, and is making an investigation.

Engine One of the Wilmington Fire Department responded, and while the firemen were putting out the fire the heavens opened up, with a rain storm that broke about 5:30 pm and assisted in putting out the fire. The rain continued for over 24 hours, and shortly after 3 pm Sunday a miniature tornado came swooping over from Tewksbury, across what is to be the Town Forest, and through

It's an ill wind etc.

It's an ill wind that doesn't blow somebody good. Readers of the Town Crier are acquainted with the old adage, and so is Dick Stuart of 84 Shawsham Avenue, Wilmington.

Mr. Stuart, who is a builder, submitted a series of plans for Carmel Street, off King Street, to the Planning Board, last summer. Each plan would be turned down, two weeks later. That's the way the law is written, in this particular instance. The Planning Board must act on a plan within two weeks, or the plan is automatically approved.

The first plan submitted by Mr. Stuart had something wrong with the lot lines, at least in the opinion of the Planning Board. In the second plan there was a question about the layout of the street.

Mr. Stuart continued to revise his plans, and submit new ones. The last one he submitted was just about the last of August.

Then came September. The members of the Planning Board, who are all unpaid, were unable to get a quorum for meetings, in the first three weeks. It was not until September 30th that they had a legal meeting.

The last plan submitted by Mr. Stuart was not, as the law says, turned down within two weeks. It was, thus automatically approved.

The Building Inspector has now issued the building permits that Mr. Stuart wanted, for Carmel Street, and he can go ahead with the building of the homes he has plans for.

It was Stuart's fourth or fifth try.

Wilmington Cold Storage has an Open House

ONE MILLION CUBIC FEET OF COLD STORAGE: That is the size of the freezer of the Wilmington Cold Storage Plant, at Two Industrial Way. There was an Open House, Tuesday, at which people in the trade and Wilmington officials were guests of the management. The plant is to open for business on the first of November.

Recycling programs are on third Saturdays

Each discarded beverage bottle represents a loss of energy equivalent to the burning of a 100 watt bulb for four hours. So says the Massachusetts Audubon Society.

Members of the Key Club of Wilmington High School collected an awful lot of energy, on September 21st when they held a re-cycling program on the High School parking lot, behind the Roman barn. They collected and smashed enough clear glass to fill five 55 gallon drums, and enough green glass for one drum, and amber glass for another drum. By Audubon standards that's a lot of energy.

The Key Club members collected over nine tons of paper. It is all part of an ecology drive, which is being held every third

"A long slow curve" Planning Board to Tighe: Build that road

Jay Tighe, developer of the real estate project known as Glen Acres, between Glen Road and Washington Avenue, has been told by the Wilmington Planning Board to build the controversial section of Washington Avenue extension. Mr. Tighe should receive the news in the mail today.

The letter to Mr. Tighe is the result of a long, closely reasoned letter from Town Counsel Alan Altman to the Planning Board. The letter, which was two pages long, was read in the Planning Board meeting Tuesday evening, after which Planning Board member Bill Hooper described it as a "long slow curve."

The letter to Tighe says, in effect: It is the Planning Board's opinion that the developer is required to build Washington Avenue extension as shown on the subdivision plan and profile which shows Washington Avenue extension to Stone Street.

Mr. Altman found that Washington Avenue extension has never been accepted by the town, and is still private property. It dates back to 1864 as part of the Daniel Ayer plan, one of the earliest Wilmington real estate developments. Altman said he had not reviewed the deeds of the abutting land owners, but it can be assumed that each owns the land to the center of the street.

The covenant between the Planning Board and the developer of Glen Acres, in that the developer has undertaken to construct Washington Avenue extension is binding, Altman says. He pointed to a case in Stoneham, in 1960, (Town of Stoneham vs. Savello 170 NE 2nd 417 1960) in which the court stated "To provide an access to a proposed subdivision from a public way is one of the principle objects of the subdivision control law."

The problem that Mr. Altman found to be unresolved was "what interest, if any, does the developer have in Washington Avenue extension?"

Altman went on to say that if the developer does not have a grant of rights, in the ownership, he is a "stranger" in that he has neither

To trucks Ainsworth Road is non kosher

Ainsworth Road, the old Salem & Lowell railroad bed, that goes from Andover Street to the Shawspoint plant, about 1000 feet from Andover Street is off-limits to trucking, by ruling of the Town Counsel, Alan Altman. An opinion of the Town Counsel is on file in the Town Clerk's office in the Town Hall, but that opinion is not open to public reading.

The road was accepted by the town meeting back in 1960, after which the then Town Manager failed to follow through and have the vote properly recorded. Since then there has been a lot of discussion, and the road was dubbed "non kosher" by the Town Crier because of the stupid position in which the town found itself.

In June 1973 the town adopted an Official Map, which gave the Board of Selectmen the right to act as a "Board of Appeals" in certain cases of street rulings. One of the first actions by that board was to have a hearing, so that the Shawspoint people could use it, that firm being in the position of being innocent victims. The Selectmen ruled in favor of Shawspoint. Presumably the difficulties were over. Presumably the road was nearly kosher.

The difficulties are still there. A few weeks ago there was discussion because of gravel trucks on Andover Street and because of the trucks on Ainsworth Road, and it was pointed out at that time that the zoning where Ainsworth Road begins is residential.

The Town Counsel, if he was asked, would rule that the Board of Selectmen could give no right to trucks to travel over a private way, in a residential zone. Presumably that is what he told the Selectmen in the opinion on file in the Town Hall.

Only a combined action of the Planning Board and the Town Meeting can change zoning.

Ainsworth Road, being residentially zoned where it leaves Andover Street, is non-kosher to truck traffic, and the only way to make a change is by combined action of the Planning Board and Town Meeting.

Planning Board wants to discuss Jewel Road

The plan for the development of land taken by the Wilmington Redevelopment Authority, off Eames Street, which has been sold to the Jewel Manufacturing Co. headed by Bill Myers of Wilton Drive, is slated for a final discussion prior to approval, by the Planning Board, next Tuesday evening.

The Planning Board discussed the plan at some length Tuesday night, and decided they wanted to talk with developers, before approval is given. An invitation is being sent to the developers to attend the next meeting. Among those items the Planning Board wants to discuss is the depth of the

Sons of Italy honors Peter B. Gay

It was a gala occasion, last Saturday, in the Statler Hilton, in Boston. Peter B. Gay of Taunton, a former legislator and a former District Attorney is now the Supreme Venerable of the Sons of Italy in the United States. He was the guest of honor, and there were over 1200 guests in the dining room at which he was honored.

The Master of Ceremonies was Selectman Michael Cairns of Taunton, and among the guests was the Governor of Massachusetts, Francis Sargent, who is turned out, is a member of the Braintree Lodge, Sons of Italy, and the Marchese Franco FEA Di Bruno, Consul General of the Republic of Italy.

John Volpe, former Governor of Massachusetts, and now U.S. Ambassador to the Republic of Italy was to have been present, but had to be in New York City, because the President of Italy was the guest of a dinner in that city.

The Marchese presented a medal to Mr. Gay, from the Republic of Italy, and shortly afterwards remarked that he himself had just returned from Italy, where the price of gasoline is now $2 a gallon.

Mr. Cairns, who, as toastmaster, was in the podium more than any other person, is the Chairman of the Judiciary Commission of the Grand Lodge, Sons of Italy, Massachusetts. His father Alde of Chestnut Street, Wilmington is an Ex Grand Venerable of Massachusetts.

Among those who were present were Mr. and Mrs. Peter B. Gay of Pocomtucket Drive, Tewksbury. Mr. Gay is one of the six sons in the family, together with one daughter.

Youth dies after car crash

The son of a well known Wilmington businessman died of injuries suffered four hours before when his car slammed into a tree in Tewksbury Friday, September 27 at 1:30 a.m.

Police report Steven M. Lucas, 18, of 82 Boylston St., Lowell, apparently lost control of his car on a curve on Rte. 38, and the vehicle damaged a fence on the property of the Wamesit Country Store, hit an embankment and crashed into a tree 50 feet up Astle Street.

Wilmington firefighters had to be called in to aid Tewksbury police and firefighters in removing Lucas from his heavily damaged car. Ptl. Alan Landers is investigating the accident.

Lucas was the son of James Lucas, who operates a Shell service station at the intersection of routes 38 and 129 in Wilmington.

Believe it or not, there are about twenty-seven different types of paint brushes made.

Most of these are very rarely used by the average do-it-yourself painter. There are some basic brushes which are almost necessary, sash brushes, varnish and enamel brushes, flat trim brushes, and flat wall brushes are among the most popular.

Sash brushes are small and flat and used for windows and narrow trim. Varnish and enamel brushes have long bristles and are soft.

Flat trim brushes are for narrow work, where as the wall brushes are also used for general work also.

PASAR STUDIO, INC.

Beautifully graceful baskets of gladiolus adorned the altar of St. Thomas Church in Wilmington for the September 14th wedding of Maureen Bridget Kelley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kelley of 8 Loumac Rd., Wilmington and John Reed Irwin, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John Irwin of 17 Glendale Circle. The Rev. Father Francis Mackin performed the 10 am ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was radiant in a gown of white silk organza over mint green, featuring an empire waist with full gathered cathedral train. Her long bishop sleeves terminated in wide cuffs and the gown was trimmed with re-embroidered alecon lace beaded with pearls, satin beads and crystal. Her long flowing cathedral length veil was trimmed with matching alecon lace and was held in place by a camelot hat. The gown was an original created by Nick Carozza of East Boston.

Barbara Jo Kelley of 8 Loumac Rd., Wilmington served as maid of honor in a gown of flowing peppermint chiffon, featuring capelet sleeves, square neck and draping back panels with back rosette. Matching picture hats of peppermint chiffon gave the total look. She carried a cascade bouquet of roses, daisies and carnations.

Serving as bridesmaids were Patricia and Bunny Kelley of 8 Loumac Rd., Wilmington; Mrs. Judy Flores of Oak Ridge Circle, Salem, N.H.; Ann Scott of Shawheen Ave., Wilmington; Maureen Carroll of Arlene Ave., Stoneham; and Marcia Maglio of Pearl St., Charlestown.

The gowns worn by the bridesmaids were styled like that of the maid of honor and they carried nosegay bouquets. Merri-Ann Kelley of 8 Loumac Rd., Wilmington served as junior bridesmaid while Deldre Kelley acted as flower girl. They were also attired in the same fashion as the maid of honor.

James Irwin of 17 Glendale Circle, Wilmington served as best man while ushering duties were in charge of Robert Flores, Oak Ridge Circle, Salem, N.H.; Jeff Meyer, Hasbrook Heights, New Jersey; William Shea, Springfield; Robert Stewart, South Broadway.

Lawrence; and Edward Gillis of Springfield. Junior usher was Jeff Irwin of 12 Glendale Circle and ringbearer duties were assumed by Shawn Kelley of 8 Loumac Rd.

During the reception, immediately following the ceremony, Sally Connell of Atkinson, N.H. circulated the guest book.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Kelley chose a two piece ensemble of maise peau de soie, enhanced by beaded lattice inserts at neckline and cuffs. The mother of the groom was attired in a full length lavender gown of marshmallow chiffon featuring an empire waist and cape bodice.

The new Mrs. Irwin is a 1970 graduate of Wilmington High School and her husband graduated with the class of 1968 WHS. He graduated from Babson College in 1973 and is currently employed with E.F. Shea Concrete Products of Wilmington.

Following a wedding trip to Bermuda the couple is now residing in Dracut.

Sandra Smith

A bridal shower for Sandra Smith was held in Reading on September 28th, given by Kathy Morin, who is to be the matron of honor. Sandra is to be married to Charles Barber of Lowell on October 26th at the Wilmington United Methodist Church.

Guests were present from Lynn, Reading, Lowell, Stoneham, New Hampshire, East Boston, Lawrence and Wilmington.

JOHN J. DWYER BEGINS SEABEE TRAINING

Navy Constructionman Recruit John J. Dwyer, whose wife Gail is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Tosinot of 1 Parker St. Wilmington, began Seabee training at the basic Equipment Operator School in Port Hueneme, Calif.

He will be instructed in the operation of heavy duty equipment used on Seabee construction projects. Seabees are trained to work under combat conditions.

He is a 1971 graduate of Burlington High School.

Ballardvale Street, for James Picciello. It will be located about 5 1/2 acres, for his landscape architect business. He had borings made through the soil (which is Hinckley, a clean type of sand and gravel), and about twenty feet down was a good layer of sand and clay which was ideal for the purpose he had in mind. Chisholm had nice colored plans, to show what he intended to do.

The Planning Board listened with growing interest. Mr. Harding observed that the way the laws are written, for Wilmington, "you can move all the gravel you want. You can dig to China, or pile it up to heaven, just as long as you don't take one spoonful off your property."

After Chisholm had finished his presentation he was told "I think you should present those plans for the consideration of the Selectmen."

Kathy Mugford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Mugford of 9 Lake St., Wilmington was among those who graduated with the twenty-third Class of the School of Practical Nursing at the Soldiers' Home in Massachusetts, Chelsea.

Graduation exercises were held at the home on Friday evening, September 27th with Commandant John L. Quigley presiding.

Several weeks ago Mr. Chisholm appeared, with one of the Cronin Brothers, before the Board of Selectmen, and sought a gravel permit for the area, which adjoins the gravel pit being operated by Mr. DeLouray. He was turned down by a unanimous vote.

Chisholm told the Planning Board that what he was seeking to do was to operate a nursery on the 5 1/2 acres, for his landscape architect business. He had borings made through the soil (which is Hinckley, a clean type of sand and gravel), and about twenty feet down was a good layer of sand and clay which was ideal for the purpose he had in mind. They should be elected says John Brooks

THE WILMINGTON HIGH SCHOOL STUDENT SCHOOL COMMITTEE. Only five candidates volunteered to run for the office, in the High School, last spring. There were only five positions to be filled. Consequently it was felt that no election was needed.

John Brooks of the School Committee made quite a point of it, last week. By not being elected they had robbed their fellow school mates of their franchise in voting, he said. What they had done, he held, was almost equivalent to a Coup d'Etat, in that they were a self-designated body of officials.

School Board will meet Wednesdays

The Wilmington School Committee will be meeting on Wednesdays, instead of Thursdays, for the remainder of 1974.

Thursdays are impossible because two of the members are busy that night. Particularly busy is Jim Demos. Mr. Demos is a teacher, in the Malden Public Schools. He enrolled in a class which was to be on Wednesday nights and which was necessary for him to attend. The class was changed to Thursday nights.

Last Thursday's meeting started late because the committee had to wait for a fourth member to show up. That's what brought about the change.

The next regular meeting of the School Committee will be on Wednesday, Oct. 9th.

There will be other meetings. Budget time is coming up, and the committee will be holding meetings with Department Heads on practically every Tuesday and Wednesday in October and November.

Bits & Pieces

Isabelle Pellerin of Burlington was expected home this week. She has been having a session in the hospital.

There is no way as yet to tell of whether or not the Community Fund hit their quota, in the Walk-A-Thon of last Sunday. There were over 400 participants, with the sun coming out every now and then to shine at the walkers.

Last year the Town Crier had a picture of Bill Hooper, Scout Master and good guy, in a jacket covered with outdoor emblems. Bill didn't do so well this year, sad to tell. About half way through the walk he felt a pain in his right eye, and had to go home. High blood pressure - or something else. To tell the truth Bill didn't look too spry.

Every time there is a hue and cry about something one learns, a few months or so later, that one of the persons who was pushing everybody else into the action has up and left.

A year ago last June there was a hue and cry to buy by eminent domain what was called Section III of Alderwood Estates. There was a special town meeting, and the land was taken. That was about 15 months ago.

Now, one of the ladies who was in the forefront has left town. Sold her house, and is gone. She lived on West Street, near where the proposed road would have come out.

The Horribles Parade is coming along. It will be held on October 31st, starting as usual at the Police Station. It is for all Wilmington residents, young, or merely young at heart. There will be awards for best costumes plus refreshments and goodies. No one can march without a costume of some kind.

The next committee meeting will be Wednesday (Oct. 9) at the Mildred Rogers School, 9:30 p.m.

The League of Women Voters of Wilmington reminds everyone that October eighth is the last day to register, for new voters to vote in the November elections. The Town is open five days a week, from 8:30 am to 4:30 pm and will be open on Registration Saturday, from 10 am to 12 noon and on Tuesday the Registrars will be in the Town Hall from 8:30 am to 8:30 pm.

The LWV is planning a Candidates Night at the Shawheen School on Friday Oct. 25 at 7:30 pm.

Frederick W. Burnham of Birchwood Road is home after a couple of weeks at Choate Memorial Hospital. He had a chest ulcer, which hit him very suddenly.

Fred is one of those who spends time at the Veterans Hospital, in Bedford doing volunteer work. He has a goodly number of hours chalked up.

Wilmington Rotary is making a very substantial donation to the Hospital Building Fund, and there is a monster party planned, for October 18th at the Casa di Fior. Full of fun, and fund raising.

Remember the Jimmy Fund. It is now treating adults for cancer too. The Wilmington Police Association is in there, pitching, too.

In conjunction with the Route 125 Gallery (Bob Auer) the Police Association is to have an auction, on October 20th at the Gallery, which is on the corner of Andover Road. The police are issuing an appeal to the good folk of Wilmington for donations, used furniture, or almost anything else. Give them a call at 658-5071 or 5072, and they will pick it up.

All proceeds are to go to the Jimmy Fund.

Remember Jim Coffin? He used to live on Hawthorn Road, and married a girl from Reading named Barbara.

Carl Melander, who runs Ceric, also at the corner of Andover Street and Route 125 was out in Iowa, about a week ago, and driving through a town named Fayette.

It had about 800 population. One of those places out in the middle of the road, Carl calls it.

The Deputy Sheriff stopped Carl and who was it but Jim. In that town the Deputy Sheriff is a big man - important. Another Wilmington man makes good!

FOOTBALL

The coaches are happily encouraged and hope the boys will remain on the winning trail.

WILDCAT TALES

Wildcats dumped by Andover

BOB BAVOTA: Lugs the ball for an 11 yard gain in the second quarter. Leading the way are Bob Aprile (21) and Chris Bouds (67).

The Wilmington varsity suffered their first setback of the season as the defending champs, Andover, nipped the locals, 14-6. The Wildcats, in quest of Coach Fred Bellissimo's 100th victory, were plagued by seven turnovers, two fumbles and the remainder in interceptions. Wilmington signal caller Carl Butler passed nine times, but had the misfortune of being unable to complete a single aerial. Back Bob Bavota completed the lone pass for the locals floating a 16 yard halfback option pass to Dana Mullarky.

Andover took the opening kickoff and proceeded to march from their own 28 yard line to the Wildcat 22 on ten plays, most of which were eaten up on a 39 yard pass play from Jeff Winters to Mark Farnham. On a fourth and six play, Dana Mullarky and Jack Stygles broke through the Golden Warriors and buried Winters for a six yard loss. Wilmington took the ball, and a 15 yard penalty put the visitors on the 13 yard line. This set the stage for Butler to unload his second pass of the day and Bill Alexander picked off the throw and waited 18 yards into the endzone at 5:23 of the opening stanza. Peter Reilly added the conversion point with a kick, and Andover took a 7-0 lead.

The Wilmington eleven took the ball in the second quarter on their own 45 yard line, and advanced to the Andover six. Bavota did the bulk of the running as he carried five times for 41 yards in the drive, which was stopped cold on the six as Bob Aprile fumbled and Dave Tallini of Andover recovered.

The favor was returned four plays later as a bad snap on a punt attempt saw John Campbell, Mike Mazzola and Ralph Peterson sack the punter Bill Alexander, the one yard line. On the ensuing play, Butler dove in for the opening score for Wilmington, and the Andover margin was cut to 7-6. In the conversion try for two points, Bavota's run failed.

Neither squad did any more scoring in the first half, and the Golden Warriors posted their insurance touchdown in the third stanza as a result of a Bill Alexander interception. Two plays after the interception a 27 yard pass to Glenn Veretta put the defending champs on the one foot line, and Alexander went up the middle for the score. Reilly added the extra point.

Mike Mazzola stopped an Andover drive with 20 seconds left in the contest by recovering a fumble on Wilmington's own nine yard line. Butler threw a bomb in a miracle try for a score but the floater to Stygles was picked off by Steve Fabiani.

Bob Bavota lugged the ball 23 times for 101 yards to bring his two game total to 156 yards. Aprile, Mark Esposito, Mullarky and Butler each carried for a total of fourteen yards to bring the team total to 115.

The Wildcats travel to Lawrence Stadium to battle Lawrence Central Catholic in a 10:30 contest this Saturday. The frosh and jayvee squads opened their seasons on winning notes as they clobbered their counterparts from Andover by identical 26-0 scores.

Harriers up
slate to 2-1

Sept. 24: Coach Kelley's Cross-Country squad opened its dual meet season on a losing note by dropping their first outing to a tough Central Catholic squad, 26-30. The favored Wilmington varsity were subdued by the Raider's exceptionally tough course on which they had very little experience. Captain Ian MacInnis captured the top spot, shaving off 11 seconds from the course record set last year by Andover distance ace George Itz.

Captain Doug Spring (4), Barry Foster (6), Tony Gravellese (8) and Peter McNaughton (10) rounded out the scoring of the hard fought decision. Chris DeLuca and Lenny Graves showed well in a losing effort for the jayvees, while Tim Sughrue's fifth place was tops for the Wildcat freshmen.

Sept. 28th: The Harriers returned to form by topping Methuen last Monday, 26-30, for their initial win of the season. Captains Spring and MacInnis placed 1-2 for the varsity, while McNaughton, Foster and Gravellese again took the next three Wildcat spots to insure the win. For the victorious jayvees it was Gary Balestrieri (2) and Lenny Graves (7) keying the win, and Tim Sughrue (2) and Ken Aalerud (9) taking the top spots in the freshman race to complete a sweep of the meet by the Wildcats.

Sept. 30th: Coach Kelley's crew gained the first six places enroute to a 15-50 drubbing of Dracut to

Boaters on top
Clash with undefeated
Billerica today

Thurs. Sept. 26th: Moe Maloney booted home a pair of markers and Chris DiCecce added the other as the Wildcats dumped Lawrence Regional High at Lawrence, 3-0. Chuck Wood added his fifth straight shutout in the nets.

Tues. Oct. 1st: Coach Lentine's soccer squad rolled to their sixth straight win as they mauled Andover, 6-1. The victory matched Lentine's 50th win as head mentor. Chuck Wood, after posting five straight shutouts, allowed Andover to score on a penalty shot. Chuck kept their record at 2-1. Excellent times all around was a major factor as Captains Spring and MacInnis were again within seconds of each other to finish 1-2 for the second time in a row.

Pete McNaughton (3), Barry Foster (4), Captain Mark Blaisdel (5) and Tony Gravellese (6) completed the rout, all recording personal bests. Lenny Graves ran a great race to pace the jayvees to their second win, while Tom Walsh (2) and Tim Sughrue (3) led the freshmen to victory, completing another Wildcat sweep.

The Harriers look for their third consecutive victory tomorrow (Oct. 4) vs Tewksbury at the Wilmington High field at 3:30 pm.

Statistics prove that a large percentage of accidents are caused by a small percent of drivers.

Accident reports identify these accident-prone drivers and afford the opportunity to improve bad driving practices.

In extreme cases, these reports can even help to remove a really dangerous driver from the highway. Location of an accident is also important in helping officials identify and fix dangerous stretches of road.

WILMINGTON YOUTH HOCKEY

The Wilmington Mite A's opened their season with a 4-0 shut-out against Somerville. After a scoreless first period, persistent forechecking by line mates J. Cornish and D. Surrrette allowed S. Lowney to score an unassisted goal at 3:49 of the second period, which was followed quickly by a goal from J. Barrett assisted by R. Callahan and J. Newhouse.

Lowney scored again in the third period assisted by D. Surrrette. Finishing off the scoring was J. Barrett with his second goal assisted again by J. Newhouse and K. Callahan.

The A's goalie, D. Demming was called upon to make only three saves due to the great defensive play by K. Robinson, P. Brady, D. Moran, M. Bryant, D. Callaruso and D. Boudreau. Line captains for the day were D. Moran, P. Brady and D. Callaruso.

The Mite 1's suffered their first loss of the season on Monday, 4-2 to a strong Woburn team.

Woburn however opened the scoring with a quick goal and the A's kept their poise and came right back with the equalizer on a beautiful goal by K. Callahan with the assist going to P. Brady.

Woburn was able to score twice more in the first to make it 3-1. Second period remained scoreless with Wilmington completely outskating and out shooting Woburn. In the third period Wilmington's hard work paid off when J. Newhouse with a nice play in front of the net was able to tuck one by Woburn's goalie with the assist going to K. Callahan.

However, Woburn was able to cor3 again to make it 4-2. The defense of P. Brady, K. Robinson, M. Bryant, D. Moran, D. Boudreau and D. Callaruso played an outstanding game. Wilmington out shot Woburn 22-16. Line captains for the -ay were K. Callahan, S. Lowney, and B. Woods.

YOU'VE COME A LONG WAY BABY: Was the sign that greeted the marchers in the Walk-a-Thon, Sunday, after they had completed their twelve mile hike around Wilmington. It was over a refreshment stand operated by members of the First Baptist Church.

New England Tel reports to Fincom

The present telephone equipment of the Town of Wilmington offices adequately serves the citizens and employees of Wilmington. So reported Harold Reynolds, an account representative of New England Telephone to the Finance Committee on September 23rd. Reynolds had recommendations for changes in the High School, and in the Town Hall, which if carried out would result in better service at the High School, and an economy at the Town Hall.

He had visited, he reported, thirteen places where telephone service exists in the Wilmington government, but not including any school other than the high school. In no instance was he able to uncover a need for a centralized answering service, nor a need to transfer calls between departments.

In Wilmington High School he listed to the school. Two more found that there are six lines serving the high school and the Department, and one to the Nurse. Two lines were unused, for outgoing calls.

Reynolds recommended that three phones be changed from unrelated numbers to consecutive numbers. The High School would continue to publish one number, and if that was busy the in-coming call would go to second or third lines, with better service to the public, which at this time has only one in-coming line.

Reynolds said his recommendation would increase the ability to receive calls in the school 200%, with no added increase in cost, other than a one-time service charge, of approximately $170.

Reynolds seemed to have a sharp eye for finding two desks, back to back, each with a telephone. In each case he recommended the removal of one telephone. He believed it possible to reduce costs for the town by $48.75 a month in this manner, with the Town Hall having more phones taken out than any other department - and, he said, with no hampering of the individual departments.

Letter

Dear Lark:

It certainly was encouraging to see that Mr. Boylen responded in the September 28th Town Crier to my letter of September 19th. Perhaps through your newspaper, we may have begun a dialogue and, as a result, we may all gain some knowledge. However, I am sorry that Mr. Boylen missed the points I was attempting to make.

The majority of people living in Wilmington are under the impression that it is unlawful for gravel merchants to sell gravel out of town. The bylaw now permits the Selectmen to increase the scope of existing gravel permits and to authorize gravel entrepreneurs to sell earth products out of town. Residents, I feel, should be aware of this change.

GUN CONTROL PANEL: At the Wilmington Public Library on September 23rd, sponsored by the League of Women Voters. There were about 50 present, and they were about evenly divided on the question of limiting the sale and possession of handguns.

The Moderator was Chris Roland of 3 Jordan Road. A speaker not shown was Don Perry, assistant Director of the Mass. Council on Crime and Correction. Shown (l. to r.) are Chief of Police Paul Lynch, and Joseph Brown and Ben Sanjurjo, both members of OQAL (Gun Owner's Action League).

This authorization completely alters the purpose for which the earth removal permit was issued. Once a local operation is allowed to expand into an area-wide business, it no longer provides gravel only for Wilmington school sites, Wilmington homes, or Wilmington roads.

A bylaw which allows the intensity of a use to be changed so drastically without a public hearing, in my opinion, is one which is completely irresponsible to the people. We want to be informed of change before the fact rather than after the fact.

In his letter, Mr. Boylen made reference to the fact that I abstained from voting on Article 7 at the Fin Com Public Hearing without an explanation. Not so, Mr. Boylen misrepresented the incident!

The first motion on that article, made by me, was: "I move that the Fin Com recommend Planning Board action." The motion failed for lack of a second, although I stated that I felt we did not have all the facts. Consequently, it appeared quite logical that I could not vote on a motion to approve without all possible information.

During the time between that hearing and the Town Meeting, I read the bylaw, talked with the Attorney General's office, attended the Planning Board hearing and investigated an ad in the Boston Sunday Globe.

Mr. Boylen states that he did not know the law. (I presume he meant the Board of Selectmen did not know the law.) Either the Selectmen knew the law or they didn't. If they didn't, they are inexcusably ill-informed regarding a law which they administer. If they knew, then their action could be interpreted as a cover-up attempt.

Whatever the presumption, one important fact has become evident. A town bylaw must be amended in order to acquire accountable action regarding earth removal.
